

Campgrounds

Scott River Ranger District

Klamath National Forest

Campground Basics:

All campsites have picnic tables and fire rings.

Site	# camp sites	Fee charged	Water available	Toilets	Barrier free facilities	Comments	Open
Bridge Flat	4*	No	No	Vault	Some 	Kelsey Trailhead nearby	May-Oct.
Carter Meadows Horse Camp	1	Yes	Aug.-Oct.	Vault	Some 	Reservation only group site	Jun.-Oct.
Hidden Horse	6	Yes	May-Oct.	Vault	Some 	Horse camp	May-Oct.
Indian Scotty	28 *	Yes	May-Oct.	Vault	No	1 group site available; reservation required for group site only	May-Oct.
Kangaroo Lake	18 *	Yes	Jun.-Oct.	Vault	Some 	Fishing pier	Jun.-Oct.
Lovers Camp	8	No	No	Vault	No	Corrals, stock ramp and stock water are available	May-Oct.
Trail Creek	12	Yes	May-Oct.	Vault	No	Great hiking opportunities	May-Oct.

* = Barbecue grills available.

** = Limited barrier free facilities are provided, such as some toilets, campsites and pathways. Some persons with disabilities may have difficulty and need assistance from others.

Kangaroo Lake

Kangaroo Lake can be reached from two directions:

Traveling south on I-5: Take the Hwy 3/Ft. Jones/Etna exit at Yreka. Travel south approximately 46 miles. Just past Callahan, follow the road toward Gazelle for 10 miles to Rail Creek Rd. (Kangaroo Lake turnoff).

Traveling north on I-5: Take the Edgewood/Gazelle exit just past Weed. In the town of Gazelle turn west at the road to Callahan. Travel approximately 25 miles to the Rail Creek Rd (Kangaroo Lake turnoff).

At the Kangaroo Lake sign, turn south onto Rail Creek Rd. (Forest Service Road 41N08); follow the signs for about 8 miles to the campground. The campground is located adjacent to one of the few high mountain lakes accessible by autos. It is popular and full most weekends. The campground has 13 drive-in and 5 walk-in sites.

The lake is at the 6,500-foot elevation, 25 acres in size, and 110 feet deep. It is regularly stocked with catchable trout. Motorized boats are not allowed on the lake.

Adjacent to the campground is a self-guided interpretive trail that connects to the Pacific Crest Trail at the top of the ridge over looking the campground and lake.

Facilities for the physically impaired have been added, including barrier-free parking, toilets, and 1/4 mile paved trail to the lake ending in two fishing piers. Some individuals may have difficulty and need assistance from others.

Indian Scotty

From Ft. Jones take the Scott River Road approximately 14 miles to Indian Scotty Campground. This site is located on the access road to Lover's Camp, Box Camp and Paradise Lake trailheads – these trails provide access to the Marble Mtn. Wilderness. It is a popular site on holiday weekends. You can sightsee, fish, hike the nearby trails, raft in the spring and swim and tube in the Scott River. There are horseshoe pits in the campground

United States Department of Agriculture

Forest Service
Pacific Southwest Region

Klamath National Forest
Scott River Ranger District
Revision: 04/09

for visitor use and a phone is located at the entrance to the campground.

There is a group site that accommodates up to 50 people. The site is available for either day use or overnight camping. The group site is available by reservation only. Reservations can be made by calling Reserve America at (877) 444-6777 or online at www.recreation.gov

Lovers Camp

This campground and trailhead serves as a staging area for various trails that provide access to the Marble Mountain Wilderness.

Lover's Camp is located approximately 22 miles from Fort Jones. Travel 14 miles down the Scott River Road; turn left onto Forest Service Road 44N45 (paved road) and follow the signs for eight miles to the campground. Lover's Camp is used as the starting point to access much of the Marble Mtn. Wilderness including the Sky High Lakes, Deep Lake and Marble Valley. The campground has corrals, stock water and a stock loading ramp. It provides a remote camping experience and has a view of the Marble Mountains.

Parking is available most of the season. Lover's Camp is very busy during holiday weekends and opening weekend of hunting season.

Bridge Flat

Located on the Scott River approximately 17 miles from Fort Jones, Bridge Flat offers easy access to white water rafting on the Scott River in the spring, and fishing throughout the season. The Kelsey Trail begins across the road from the campground. This historic route offers excellent opportunities for scenic day hikes or longer trips into the Marble Mountain Wilderness. It connects with the Pacific Crest Trail approximately eight miles from the campground at Paradise Lake.

Hidden Horse

From Ft. Jones follow Highway 3 south for 25 miles to the Callahan-Cecilville Road turnoff. Continue on this paved, two-lane road for another 11 miles to approximately ½ mile beyond the summit. Turn left at Road 39N08, travel approximately ¾ mile to the campground. Elevation is 6000 ft.

Each campsite is designed for family camping and has a pull through driveway and four 12'X12' corral stalls, a fire ring, picnic table, drinking water, and a tent site. There are no stock watering troughs or feed bunks. Campers must bring their own buckets and hay nets or feed on the ground.

Campsite #5 is designed to be accessible for most people with disabilities. There is an accessible horse-mounting ramp available at this site.

Carter Meadows Horse Camp

From Fort Jones, follow Highway 3 south for 25 miles to the Callahan-Cecilville Road turnoff. Continue on this paved, two-lane road for another 11 miles to approximately ½ mile beyond the summit. Turn left at Road 39N08, travel approximately ¼ mile to the campground.

Carter Meadows Horse Camp is designed for large groups with horses. There are corrals for 25+ horses, several picnic tables and a large group barbeque. Reservations are required, and can be made by calling Reserve America at (877) 444-6777 or at www.recreation.gov

The camp is centrally located between the Trinity Alps and Russian Wildernesses. There is a network of interconnecting trails to Long Gulch, Trail Gulch and the PCT that will take you into these wildernesses. There are several lakes within a days ride.

Trail Creek

From Fort Jones, follow Highway 3 south for 25 miles to the Callahan-Cecilville Road turnoff. Travel past Carter Meadow Summit another three miles to the campground. This small campground offers great day hiking opportunities into several lakes in the Trinity Alps and Russian Wildernesses. Access to the Pacific Crest Trail is nearby, offering extended trips into both of these wildernesses. Nearby Trail Creek and East Fork offer stream fishing. Winter access is possible, and offers cross-country skiing opportunities for all skill levels. There are miles and miles of Forest Roads to explore by vehicle or ATV.

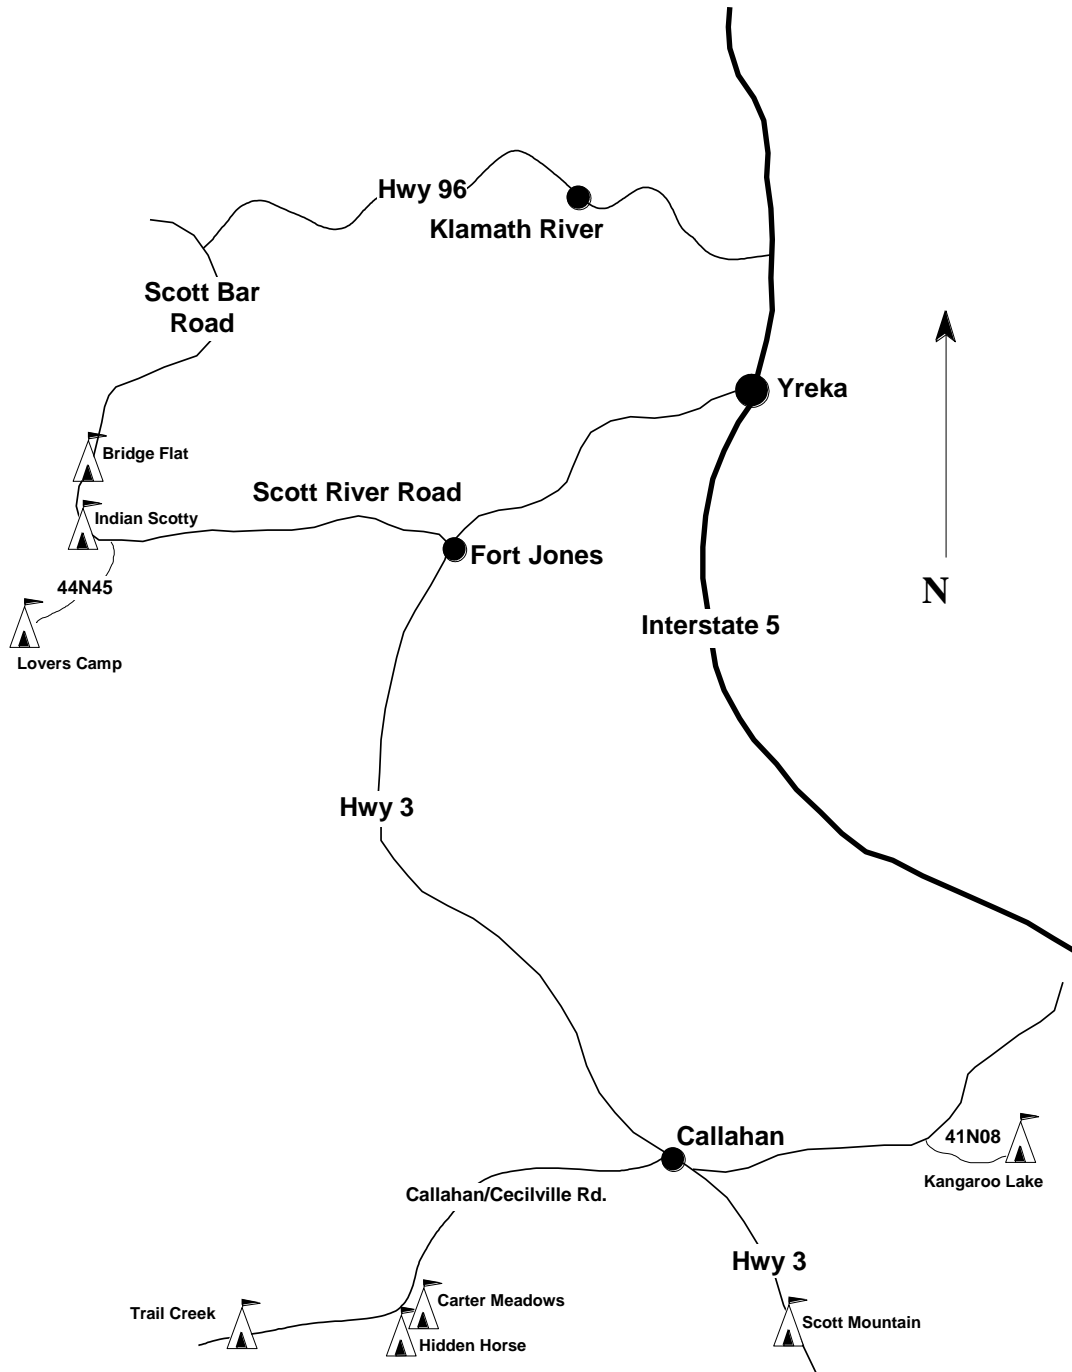

When staying in the campgrounds, be sure to build campfires only in the fireplaces provided. Keep your animals on a leash and be sure to place all trash in the bins provided. If there aren't any bins available, please pack out your trash and help keep the forest clean. Clean fish and wash dishes away from water faucets.

This information is subject to change. For current information contact:

Scott River Ranger District

11263 N. Highway 3
Fort Jones, CA, 96032
(530) 468-5351
(530) 468-1298 (TDD)

Campgrounds on the Scott River Ranger District

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) prohibits discrimination in all its programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, and where applicable, sex, marital status, familial status, parental status, religion, sexual orientation, genetic information, political beliefs, reprisal, or because all or part of an individual's income is derived from any public assistance program. (Not all prohibited bases apply to all programs.) Persons with disabilities who require alternative means for communication of program information (Braille, large print, audiotape, etc.) should contact USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TDD).

To file a complaint of discrimination, write to USDA, Director, Office of Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20250-9410, or call (800) 795-3272 (voice) or (202) 720-6382 (TDD). USDA is an equal opportunity provider and employer.